STESPEAN

Weeks-Townsend Memorial Library
Union College
Barbourville, KY 40905

Welcome

A WORD FROM DR. DAVID C. JOYCE, PRESIDENT

As the years pass following your graduation from Union College, this book will become more and more precious. When you gather with family and friends you will often refer to your Stespean to fondly remember your adventures (and misadventures) at Union College. If your experience is anything like mine, the stories will become more embellished over time. Your yearbook will help to either validate your stories or temper them. In any event, this volume will serve you well for the rest of your life.

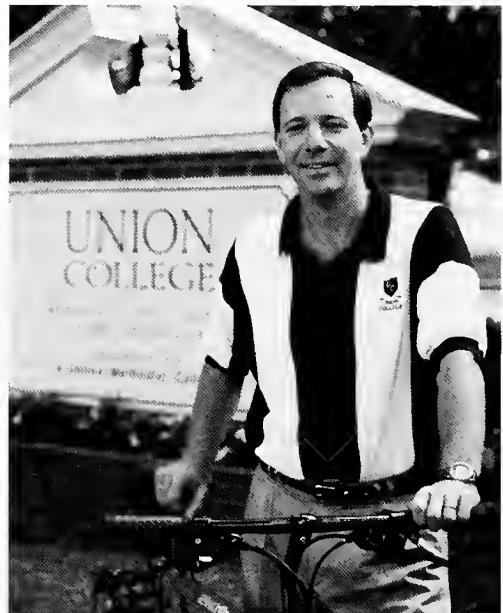

I congratulate you on your choice of colleges. I commend to you the energy and effort of many of your classmates who worked diligently to make this yearbook possible. May your memories of your time at Union College be special.

“ you will often refer to your Stespean to fondly remember your adventures (and misadventures) at Union College.”

Sincerely,

David C. Joyce
President

Dedication

Alumni have been a driving force behind this revival of the Stespean. Without their support ~ through monetary donations, equipment, suggestions and enthusiasm ~ the yearbook at Union College would be conspicuously absent for another year.

STESPEAN

It's back, but what's with the name?

According to the history book, Union College 1879-1979, "Stespean" was derived from the first three letters of the names Stevenson and Speed, with the suffix an. Violet Humfleet, associate editor of the first Stespean, is credited with the 'happy coinage.'"

The return of the Stespean is an indication of things to come. There is a spirit of renewal at Union College ~ a new direction. The changes occurring are a direct result of a strategic visioning process prompted by the Board of Trustees' charge to the then-new president, Dr. David C. Joyce.

"Formulate a vision of the institution's future . . . take the risks required to achieve that vision, on campus and beyond," the Board said. The process has and will continue to embrace the successful aspects of Union College and rebuild other areas to create a more sound structure for education.

A sound structure requires an equally strong foundation. At Union College, that foundation has always included an extraordinary sense of community. Just as the effort to accomplish visioning ideals has called upon the support of administration, faculty, staff, alumni and current students, so has the upstart of the new Stespean era. And like the process of visioning, as momentum gathers, growth shines forth in this volume as it will in each new volume. Visioning will bring new programs and new buildings. The process is vital to the life of the college. And so is the Stespean. For it is here that Union College life is preserved.

The 1997-1998 Stespean staff would gratefully like to thank:
Scott Cummings and Tracey Young for donating photos from their archives and for identifying those unknown people in the pictures.
Ed de Rosset for the use of his camera so that we were able to take some pictures too! Also thanks to him for the endless supply of photos.
Thanks to other students and staff who so kindly donated their pictures so that our book could be more accurate.
Thanks to those who helped us identify pictures when we just could not figure out someone's last name!
Thanks to our advisors, Dr. Bob Clement, Ms. Lise Cutshaw, Mrs. Melissa Garrett, Dr. Christine Marley and Ms. Robin Swisher. Without your guidance, we truly would have been lost.
Thanks to all of the alums and others who donated funds and supplies to make this publication possible.
A special thanks to the yearbook staff members who generously gave their time not only during the school year, but also during the summer to ensure the publication met its deadline.

- The 66 Volume of the Stespean is a student produced book.
